THURSDAY MORNING.—E.P.C. 15, 1861.

DEMOCRATIC STATE UNION CONVENTION!

I am instructed by the State Democratic Committee to call a Convention of Delegates from all the counties in Kentucky, to be held in the city of Louisville, on Tuesday the 8th day of January next, and to invite the co-operation in sending delegates to said Convention of all the citizens of the Commonwealth, without respect to parties, favorable to the maintenance of the Federal Union, on the basis of non-intervention by Congress with slavery in the Territories, and the faithful enforcement of existing laws for the protection and surrender of slave property, without let or hindrance by the laws or authorities of non-slaveholding States.

J. B. COCHRAN,
Chairman Democratic State Com.

ODDS AND ENDS.—Yesterday was sunshiny after a week's gloom. We cannot tell how it affected other people, but for us—it made us as jolly as a tom-tit on a pump handle. We made the most of it; we walked, ran, jumped, whistled it; we drank, ate, and slept, and thought that there were full of sunshine. It was the most delightful intoxication imaginable. Emerson says poets should get drunk on water; we prefer sunshine as the most exhilarating. If the rich could bottle it up for their own drinking, we should be miserable, for we couldn't afford a costly beverage. But it is a free tipple, and poor and rich alike may enjoy it if they will. Blessed be the sun-shine that paints the rainbow and the clouds, and the performance more than adequately compensated those who attended. Mr. Whitney, at Mount Hall, on this evening. The Wars of the Giants of intellect should be popular with every refined mind, and we hope he will have an appreciative audience to night. A evening was not to be more pleasantly passed.

THE DEMOCRATS OF THE FIFTH AND SIXTH will meet in the City Court room on Saturday night, at early gas light, to appoint delegates to the Eighth of January Convention.

THEATRE.—The audience was greatly improved last night, both in quality and quantity, and the performance more than adequately compensated those who attended. Miss Bickings was in fine voice and good spirits, and her personations met with the applause they deserved. She is, without doubt, one of the most finished and elegant light comedies actresses on the American stage. She has been deservedly one of the favorites of the public; she occupies as elevated a social position as any lady in the land, and, in fine, she offers every inducement to the most abundant patronage which London can bestow. This she will undoubtedly receive, and is how receiving, as her due.

MISS BICKINGS appears as the Daughter of the Regiment, and Peggy Green, two characters in which she was never surpassed. We shall doubtless meet at the theater this evening all the beauty and fashion which Miss B. invariably attracts.

DEMOCRATS, ATTENTION!—The Democrats of the First and Second wards will meet at Schmid's Exchange on Saturday evening, at early gas light, to appoint delegates to the Convention of the Democratic party. Turn out, one and all.

THE trial of the slave Dave Caulion, who so cruelly outraged the person of Miss Catherine Swanson on the night of the 2d inst., takes place to day.

PROCEESS.—Jerry Quinn failed to give bail in $100 for drunken and disorderly conduct, and was sent to the workhouse for one month. Moses Foley and E. Eraser became upbraided with the use of the abject; they were both required to give bail in $100 to be of good behavior for three months. Wm. Cook and James New, man, drunk and disorderly conduct: discharged. Thomas Kershaw was arraigned for perjury; his case was continued until to day; he was committed to jail. Pat Hogan was sent to the workhouse on Tuesday, for three months, in default of bail; was brought into court yesterday, and gave bail in the sum of $100 to be of good behavior.

HAMMER, THE WIZARD.—This prince of necromancers performed to a crowded house at Masonic Temple, last evening. The performance seemed to give satisfaction to the immense auditory. Madame Salinius is a musical wonder, and the dwarf, Sprightly, is truly, a prodigy.

SANGUARY.—The following is a very pleasant reply to a sanguinary challenge published in the Democrat:

MESS. H. COOPER, Home & Co.—Gentlemen, Mr. Charles Summers, the subscriber, has sent you a bill for $100, and you have not paid it. We demand payment, and you have not paid it. We demand payment, and you have not paid it. We demand payment, and you have not paid it.

THE Atlantic City is the best of all.

THE Hopkinsville Press gives assurance of the comfortable condition of the patients of the Lunatic Asylum at that place, recently destroyed by fire. The Board of Managers have purchased the large brick building formerly the boarding house of the young ladies of Christian College, situated in the northern portion of the town, at a cost of $1,500, and placed all the female patients in it. All of them have been removed from the court-house and hotel, except one man at the Brooke House, named Aldred, who jumped out of a window in the second story of the court-house, last Monday, and broke one of his legs in two places. There were thirty patients missing after the conflagration. Six of them have been returned, and the whereabouts of some six others is known.

HOG.—The number of hogs which have reached Lynchburg, Va., from the West this season, is about 4,000, most of which have sought an eastern market. But very few have been taken in that city, buyers preferring to await a decline in the article, which is still held at $8 per cwt.

A NEW SWISS.—The Albany Journal describes an expert swindler, who is to scatter "Counterfeited Detectives" through the west, describing as good, bogus money, and then passing it off for wheat and pork. This has been done on a pretty large scale recently.

MR. Major-General Duncan McDonald died on the 25th ult., at Elizabethtown, North Carolina, of which town he was the oldest citizen. He was an officer in the late war with England, and acquitted himself with commendable tact and ability.

FAIR AT PARIS.—The Old Fellow at Paris will hold a fair in that city, to commence on Christmas day. Prize, valued at $10,000, will be distributed among one thousand ticket-holders.

HON. Alexander Harper, of Zanesville, O., died on Saturday last, in the 70th year of his age. He was in Congress three successive terms, some fifteen years ago.

W. F. Freeman, Esq. of California, bought Stephen C. Brown's fine jack "Giant Mammoth," a few days ago, for $10,000.

THE—The other evening the following occurred in the performance at Whitney's circus at Philadelphia. The clown speaks with equal truth and wit:

King Master.—Well, sir, have you read the President's Message?

—Of course I have. Every intelligent and influential gentleman, like myself, always reads the message of the President of the United States.

King Master.—Well, sir, what do you think of it?

—It is a great message, a powerful message; an unanswerable message.

King Master.—About that, sir, there is some difference of opinion.

—No, sir; there is no difference of opinion upon that subject. The President is perfectly right—perfectly right, sir. He is in favor of all sides of the question.

REMANUFACTURE.—Such is the general state of the Paris thoroughfares that during the past five thousand persons have been wounded and seven hundred killed by the vehicles of all kinds that fill the streets, and render the crossings so dangerous. Now, it is a remarkable fact that, on the thousands that daily crowd the great clothing house of J. M. Armstrong on Main street, opposite the National Hotel, not an accident of a serious nature has occurred in six years; but lest some might have fears, since the great reduction in the price of his men's and boy's clothing, that the threshold should be great that accident might result, all are assured that the ingress and egress is so arranged that collision is impossible.

WANTED.—By a thorough and experienced business man, a good salesman, a good solicitor of business, has an extensive acquaintance North and South, has had many years' experience in a general mercantile house, both wholesale and retail, a situation as salesman in a dry goods or provision house, wholesale preferred; or will accept any respectable and paying agency; has no objection to taking a situation in any part of the country; or is willing to travel for his master; as stockholder, we condemn said integrity and confidence.

MEMPHIS MEETING.—The LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE RAILROAD.—At an adjourned meeting of the merchants and business men of Nashville—a large number being in attendance—held at the Court house Saturday evening, December 18th, the report submitted to the meeting, December 18th, was read and adopted by an unanimous vote.

WARS OF THE GIANTS.—We desire particularly to direct the attention of all lovers of the power of eloquence and the beauty of language, to the very recherche entertainment of Mr. Whitney, at Mount Hall, on this evening. The Wars of the Giants of intellect should be popular with every refined mind, and we hope he will have an appreciative audience to night. A evening was not to be more pleasantly passed.
